When you contact us, you will find:

- Our office is in Tyler, Texas. We live here. We work here. We serve here.
- A long-term and personal relationship. We are here for you as long as you need us.
- Hearts and hands extending to help. We are more than just a voice on the other end of a phone line. In addition to our staff and volunteers, our partners include local churches, civic groups, colleges and universities, and other nonprofit organizations throughout East Texas.
- An independent organization that does not hold a formal affiliation with any national organization. Our board of directors and staff can be flexible to implement new services and programs as needs arise in our community.
- Every dollar stays here. All donations go directly toward services and programs in Smith County to support families, friends, and neighbors affected by Alzheimer's disease and related dementias.
